NAVY AND SING TAO DRAW

The Royal Navy and Sing Tao soccer eleven met in a practice game at the Causeway Bay ground yesterday evening. Each side scored once.

The match was evenly contested though it never reached a really high standard. Yeung Shiu-yick, who will be making a comeback, was seen on the left wing for the Chinese, but was apparently taking things easy and did nothing of note.

Both of the goals, Ip Pak-wah for Sing Tao and Hendy for Navy, were scored in the first half.

MAHATMA'S LIFE A CUT FROM INDIAN HISTORY

Mahatma Gandhi is 71 years old. The history of India during the last two decades is practically this one man's life-story written large. To the submerged masses, the "dumb half-starved millions" of India, as he often describes them, Mahatma Gandhi is the friend, philosopher and guide, and is dearer to them than their very life.

Temple and set up practice at has often admitted that he owes more to the influence of his mother than to his father. As was wise custom in those days he was married at the age of thirteen and before he was eighteen he was already a father. Later he was called to the bar at the Inner Bombay.

About 1893 professional engagements took him to South Africa, and this gave occasion to a completely different turn to the course of his life.

On the advice of friends and after deep reflection he decided to settle down in South Africa as a barrister. It did not take him long to establish a great reputation as a lawyer, respected both the "litigant public" and the courts.

But his very profession brought him into intimate contact with the "offerings of his countrymen in South Africa." The iron had entered his soul and during the earlier years of his life in South Africa he interviewed and pleaded with Government officials and it was to improve the status of Indians in the country. But all these were as the greatest man living.

AN IDEA IS BORN

He soon abandoned his practice and devoted his whole time and energy to work on their behalf.

It was about this time that he conceived the idea of "civil resistance" as a weapon with which to fight the battles of his helpless countrymen, who marched with him in their hundreds to Saol.

When, however, the war broke out in 1914 he stopped his campaign and threw in his lot with the British cause. About this time what is known as the Smuts-Gandhi Agreement was signed and Gandhi returned to India.

In India also, in spite of strong opposition from many of the political leaders of the day, he went ahead with his programme of all possible help to Britain. Finally he succeeded in converting even those who at first opposed his programme.—(Malaya Tribune).

FANTASTIC JAIL BREAK THREAT

A fantastic jail break threat failed to materialize in New York recently but kept jailers and 50 heavily armed extra guards on duty in Brooklyn's Raymond Street Prison until daylight.
Police received an underworld tip that two major jail breaks would be attempted during the night to free a number of material witnesses in the "Murder Incorporated" crime ring inquiry.
According to the scheme, a number of gangsters were to be arrested on minor charges and refuse bail when appearing in Night Police Court.
On being taken to jail in a van, they planned to overpower their guards, throw open the prison gates and admit a number of armed accomplices. Prisoners would be freed in the resulting confusion.

A machine-gun nest was posted outside the prison and every vanload of new prisoners was carefully examined, but nothing occurred.

The sign contains on the surface 1,050 lights, each representing an electrical contact, and each in turn corresponding to a perforation made in the running strip of paper punched in letters by the operator.

Each of the 25-watt light is in a separate glass-enclosed socket, and individually wired. It takes eight miles of wiring to connect these 1,050 lights with the boards in the operator's room.

Sir Edward Grigg Warns Of The Formidable Nazi Army

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—“Let no one imagine that because the invasion has not yet been attempted the danger of it has ceased to exist,” declared Sir Edward Grigg, Under-Secretary of State for War, in the House of Commons yesterday.

CHINA WANTS JUST PEACE

Determination To Fight On Reiterated

CHUNGKING, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—China's determination to fight on until a “just and honourable peace” has been secured, is reaffirmed in authoritative Chinese quarters yesterday.

The Government has still no official knowledge of the reported Japanese peace feeler.

One commentator described the move as a repetition of Japan's earlier manoeuvres to create a false atmosphere beneficial to Japan's plans.

He added: “The threat to accord recognition to the puppet Wang Ching-wei regime in Nanking leaves us cold. It shows how ignorant the Japanese are of the spirit of the Chinese even after three and a half years of war. It also shows that Japan still wants a dictated peace.”

YANGTZE RIVER OPERATIONS

HEAVY JAPANESE CASUALTIES

CHUNGKING, Nov. 20 (Central).—More than 300 casualties have been inflicted on a combined Japanese infantry and artillery unit which has been attacking the Chinese positions around Klayu, on the south bank of the Yangtze River north-west of Fuchi in south Hupeh, in the past few days.

The Japanese attacked under the cover of heavy bombardments from warships and planes. Fighting against overwhelming odds, the Chinese have tenaciously held their ground.

HARASSING ATTACKS

Chinese forces in north Hunan have scored successes over the Japanese in a series of harassing attacks and sabotage operations. In a raid on Kangwang, south-east of Yoyang, they inflicted over 100 casualties.

A Japanese locomotive and four coaches were blown up east of Linsiang, northeast of Yoyang, a few days ago, killing more than 200 Japanese.

A report from Kihwa reveals that Chinese artillery frustrated a Japanese attack on points along the Fuchun River south-west of Hangchow, on Nov. 17.

The Japanese were put to rout with heavy losses.

GERMAN GOVT. & TREATMENT OF PRISONERS

U.S. Asked To Make Representations

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—The American Government has been asked to make plain to Germany their responsibilities regarding prisoners of war, Mr. Anthony Eden, Secretary for War, declared in the House of Commons yesterday.

Declaring that he was very unsatisfied with the position of British prisoners of war in certain camps in Germany, Mr. Eden said that the German Government is being urged, through available diplomatic channels, to fulfil their obligations and the American Government in the last few days had been asked to make representations.

Mr. Eden was replying to a question which suggested that British prisoners of war were too weak to play games owing to lack of ordinary food.

DARING GREEK RAID

ITALIANS MAGNIFY INCIDENT

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—The daring raid by 15 Greeks on one of the Dodecanese Islands (which are under the Italian flag) assumed monster proportions in an official Italian communique issued yesterday.

What actually happened was that the 15 Greeks, all of whom were born in the Dodecanese Islands, decided to carry out a raid on one island all on their own.

They set out on Sunday night in a motorboat, landed, and were challenged by Italian guards.

THREE CAPTURED

They killed three and captured a further three and then set for home feeling very pleased with themselves.

The Italian communique admitted the raid yesterday and said that the Greeks tried to take possession of the island but this was thwarted by prompt action by the Italian land, sea and air forces.

AUSTRALIA WITH BRITAIN TO THE LAST MAN, SHIP

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Australia's message of 1914 to Great Britain “We are with you to the last man and last ship” was repeated last night in a broadcast by Mr. S. M. Bruce, the High Commissioner.

Mr. Bruce added: “To this end we are putting forth our maximum efforts at sea, on land and in the air to reinforce your Navy, Army and Air Force.”

“We are mobilising to your support all our financial, economic and productive resources. Our determination is to render you all help in our power in this hour of need.”

Mr. Bruce said that the Government had undertaken to provide a fully equipped and trained air force of 57,000 men of which 40,000 are already enlisted from 130,000 applicants.

Tetanus Now Preventable

PROTECTION GIVEN TO TROOPS

CLEVELAND, — Tetanus, more familiarly known in one form as lockjaw, now may be considered a preventable disease, and “it is of paramount importance that our military forces be given adequate protection” against it, according to Lieut. Comdr. L. R. Newhouse of the navy medical corps.

BEST MEANS

Describing what appears to be the best means of making fighting men immune to the malady he told of the value of safeguards against it at the meeting of the association of military surgeons of the United States.

“Tetanus does not cripple armies as epidemics may,” he commented, “but it is a serious disease accompanied by a high mortality rate. Even though the victim is fortunate enough to recover, the sick have always reduced the efficiency of any military unit out of proportion to their number.”

IMMUNIZED

Commander Newhouse cited the fact that several million French, British, Canadian, and Italian soldiers received the tetanus toxoid immunization during the past four years with few cases of undesirable reactions to it and no reported cases of tetanus for any of those immunized.

The French, he added, immunized even some 60,000 cavalry horses. Not a horse suffered tetanus thereafter, whereas previously the disease had claimed 40 to 60 victims for its annual equine death toll.

F.D.R. APPEALS TO LABOUR

Need Stressed For United Democracy

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—President Roosevelt yesterday appealed to Labour to close its ranks in the National Interest. Profiting by the opportunity offered Mr. John Lewis's resignation on Monday the President yesterday sent a message to the Convention of American Labour Federation urging the labour movement to reach a just and honourable peace.

He stressed the need for a “great and united democracy in any emergency which might be forced upon us.”

MOSCOW, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Sir Stafford Cripps, the British Ambassador in Moscow, saw M. Vishinsky, Vice-Commissar for Foreign Affairs, yesterday.

Night Bomber Problem

COUNTER STILL NOT IN SIGHT

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—The problem of countering the night bomber, which is engaging the best scientific brains of all belligerent countries, still defies solution.

Britain is “very hopeful of finding means to defeat the night bomber but the problem is still very far from being solved,” declared Air Marshal Sir Philip Joubert, speaking in London.

“In this war we are coping with the enemy flying three times as fast as they did in the last war and climbing twice as high with all sorts of aids to help him escape detection.

“Our fighter boys have a stiff problem before them. They have to have something more than cat's eyes to see the enemy.”

NANNING BACK TO NORMAL

CHUNGKING, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Chinese troops have now occupied the coastal region in south-west China following the evacuation of the Japanese Expeditionary Force which was completed on Saturday.

The ports of Yanchow and Fangcheng are now in Chinese hands, and Nanning, chief city in Kwangsi Province, which the Japanese held for about one year before abandoning it late in October, is rapidly returning to normal.

HUNGARY EXPECTED TO JOIN AXIS-JAPAN PACT

BUDAPEST, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—It is understood that Hungary's signature will be added to the Axis-Japan pact when Count Teleki, Premier, and Count Csaky, Foreign Minister, arrive in Vienna today.

It is not expected that there will be any protocols of the pact detailing the military co-operation which might be expected to develop between Hungary and the Axis.

In view of the existing co-operation, such protocols would be superfluous.

It is pointed out that signature of the pact by Hungary would be a formality. It would enable the Germans to beat their propaganda big drum and no change in the situation for Hungary is expected.

The two ministers will probably return to Budapest on Thursday, AGAIN TODAY.

BASLE, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—A definite agreement between Spain and the Axis Powers leading to “some form of activity” may be expected daily, says the Rome correspondent of the Basle Nachrichten.

Political circles in Rome consider that the discussions have now come to an end and developments will follow.

The Berlin correspondent of the same paper says that the Wilhelmstrasse is exceedingly reticent with regard to the visit of Senor Serrano Suñer, Spanish Foreign Minister, to Germany but well informed circles say that the negotiations with Spain are now completed.

ANXIOUS TO AVOID WAR LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—The Daily Telegraph writes that there is reason to believe that powerful Spanish elements, including leading soldiers, are anxious to avoid war.

The Times thinks that both Spain and Italy seem to doubt whether Hitler is going to fulfill his first promise to them of extensive North African territories at the expense of France or whether he has whittled down their claims in bargaining with Marshal Petain.

U.S. SUPPLIES FOR GREECE

Harold Vanderbilt To Head Committee

NEW YORK, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Mr. Harold Vanderbilt, holder of the America Cup, is to serve as Chairman of the Greek-American Committee organized to aid the Greeks with food and medical supplies, according to an announcement by the Greek Consulate.

Several hundred Greeks in the United States have volunteered to go and fight for their homeland but the problem is how to send them to Greece.

GREEK APPEAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—The Greek Government has appealed to the United States for permission to purchase aviation and other war material, Mr. Sumner Welles announced yesterday, adding that Greece has been assured that the appeal would receive the most sympathetic response.

Shortly before the announcement of Greece's request, the British and American Ambulance Corps announced in New York that 25 ambulances would be sent to Greece as soon as transportation could be arranged.

BACK TO LIFE

"How do you feel this morning, Jack?"

"Ugh!"

"Like that, eh?"

"Worse than that!"

"Good party, though. Never enjoyed an evening as much for years."

"I've never hated a morning as much. I'm still tossing feverishly on my bed of pain. In fact I don't suppose I shall ever get up again. Send me some bottle from time to time, will you? And a few lozenges. Tell the boys I'm keeping a stiff upper lip."

"Hasn't anybody told you about Gimalta? I stuck to them all evening. Feel as fresh as a whole field full of daisies."

"You mean that Rod's Lima Juice takes care of the hangover before it starts?"

"Definitely. It's known as 'a therapeutic agent' if that conveys anything to you."

"It might, if my mind could grasp words of more than one syllable. I say—I think I'll send out for some right away. Ringing old boy! I feel better already. See you one of these days at the club. Good-bye."

FINANCE COMMITTEE MTG.

INCREASED BUILDING ACTIVITY IN COLONY IS REFLECTED IN BIG VOTE FOR OUTLAY OF ROADS

FOLLOWING THE MEETING OF THE LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL THIS AFTERNOON THE FINANCE COMMITTEE will go into session when consideration will be given to supplementary votes totalling $1,369,826.

The biggest appropriation, $399,011, comes under the Charitable Services head, being balance of the anticipated deficit of the Tung Wah and Associated Hospitals for the fifteen months ending March 31, 1941.

When the Estimates for 1940-41 were framed it was not possible to estimate accurately the anticipated deficit and a token sum of $350,000 was provided. It is now anticipated that the deficit will be $746,011.

The next biggest single item is the vote for $210,000 under the Defence (A.R.F.) head being special expenditure for medical stores.

VOTE EXPLAINED

It is explained that funds hitherto provided have been earmarked for the purchase of medical stores which cannot be obtained locally and which, therefore, have to be ordered several months in advance.

It was also the intention to provide, by supplementary vote, further funds for the immediate local purchase of other such stores only when it seems desirable to do so as a precautionary measure. It is considered that such local purchases should now be made.

P.W.D. APPROPRIATIONS

Under Public Works Recurrent and Water Works two appropriations totalling $326,569 are requested, $120,000 for Maintenance of Water Works and $206,569 being Contribution to Renewals and Improvements Fund.

The increased building activity during the last two years has necessitated higher expenditure than was anticipated for laying out roads, channels, pavements, etc., to the new building sites and a vote for $125,000 is requested under the Public Works Extraordinary (Roads) head.

OTHER VOTES

Other votes to come up for consideration follows:—

Colonial Secretary's Office—Rent of Public Telephones, $34.

Botanical and Forestry Department—Conveyance, $1,500.

Defence (H.K.V.D.C.)—Incidental Expenses, $500; Improvements to Camp, $622; Rent of Public Telephones, $460; Special Expenditure (Mobilisation Stores), $4,400.

Harbour Department and Air Services—Two Signalling Lamps (Harbour Dept.), $180; Upkeep of Motor Services (Air Services), $500.

Miscellaneous Services—Telegrams, $50,000; Acquisition of Shares in Messrs. Noronha & Co. Ltd. (Govt. Printers), $140,000.

Police Force—Passages for Detainees, $18,000; Rations for Indian Police, $25,200.

Post Office, Wireless and Broadcasting—Fuel, Light and Power (Post Office), $4,000; Electric Current and Fuel (Wireless), $8,750.

Prisons Department—Photography, $2,100; Prisoners' Earnings, $200; One Motor Van (Special Expenditure), $3,200.

Public Works Recurrent and Water Works—Miscellaneous and Dredging Foreshores, $22,500.

Sanitary Department—Scavenging Gear, $8,500.

Public Works Extraordinary—Conversion of dry latrine at Ma Tau Kok Slaughter House to flush, $1,000; Alterations to old Printing Shop, Victoria Gaol, $16,000.

ROBBERY TRIAL CONCLUDES

"CAT" FOR ONE OF TWO ACCUSED

Appearing before Mr. Justice Williams at the Criminal Sessions yesterday charged with robbery at an unnumbered hut at So Yuk Village, Shamshui, Lo Lai and Lo Sul, were each sentenced to two years' hard labour. Lo Lai was also given six strokes of the "cat." He pleaded guilty to the charge on Saturday.

Mr. J. Reynolds, Crown Counsel, was for the prosecution, and the jury comprised Messrs. A. E. da Souza (foreman), Robert Smith Chao, Chan Kim-fon, Leung Sik-hong, Chester Huang, Paul Zane and Koma Cheu.

The victims in the robbery were Tsang Loi, a farmer, who lost a pair of trousers and $20.64, and his wife, Lai Yuen, who was robbed of a pair of gold earrings, a gold finger ring, $123 Hongkong currency and $480 Chinese money.

REVOLVER THREAT

Four robbers broke into their house about 2.30 a.m. on Oct. 23 and threatened them and their children with a revolver and knives. The inmates were gagged and bound while the robbers ransacked the hut. The accused was seen guarding the entrance of the house.

After they had left the house, they attempted to board a junk to escape. The junk people raised the alarm and the culprits ran into a timber yard in Cheung Sha Wan Road.

CHASED BY WATCHMAN

Chan Cheung, a private watchman, and several foks of nearby shops gave chase and the two accused were arrested while they were climbing a barbed wire fence in Shamshui barracks.

Four Traffic Fatalities

10-YEAR-OLD GIRL STRUCK BY BUS

In the Colony of Hongkong including the Island, Kowloon and New Territories during the week ending at 8 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 16, there were altogether 93 traffic accidents as the result of which four persons were killed and 32 persons were injured.

Of persons killed, a 10-year-old girl and a Chinese male, age 40, were knocked down and killed by a bus and a public car respectively while crossing the carriageway.

Two Chinese males, aged 21 and 20 respectively, died from injuries received on falling off a moving lorry and as a result of a collision between vehicles respectively.

CHINESE LEAVE INDO-CHINA

SHARP INCREASE IN STEAMSHIP FARES

A large exodus of Chinese residents from French Indo-China is in progress as a result of the strained relations between the French Colony and Thailand, according to a Halphong message to the Takumpao.

Most of them are returning to China by way of Laos. After crossing the border into Chinese territory, they have to travel about 80 kilometres on foot before they can travel on trains, as the rails in that section have been torn up by the Chinese authorities.

Many are going to Hongkong and Shanghai. There has been a sharp increase of steamship fares from French Indo-China to these two places.

BRITISH ARMY'S OFFICE METHODS

SPEEDING UP WORK

A start has been made in the Southern Command with the recommendations of the Reform Committee recently appointed by Mr. Eden, War Minister, under the chairmanship of Sir James Grigg, Permanent Under-Secretary for War, to accelerate the work of War Office departments.

After a preliminary investigation at the War Office, which resulted in a number of recommendations regarding clerical procedure, a sub-committee was formed to operate in the various commands, beginning with the Southern.

CLERICAL WORK

The sub-committee includes both civilian and Army men, whose work, among other things, includes the study of how certain Army reforms are working out in practice. Clerical work will be studied and special consideration given to the complexity of Army forms and returns.

Some of the reforms, which impinge on practically every form of activity in the modern Army, are of an experimental nature. If the committee considers them successful, they will be given much wider application.

Another feature of the investigation will be the possible introduction of further modern office and commercial methods. Since this will have to be done without unduly complicating the already complicated military administrative machine, however, the task is recognized to be one of some magnitude.

was knocked down by a car. Her body was taken into the hospital, when it was found her husband

OILING THE AXIS

THE FEVERISH diplomatic activity which was set in motion by the Axis Powers in Europe over the week-end shows how urgent it has become for Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini to retrieve their falling prestige in the eyes of the world. It is certain that what precipitated this manoeuvring was the signal successes which the British Navy and the Fleet Air Arm achieved in the Mediterranean and the debacle which the Italian Army is facing in Greece. Both these setbacks came at an inopportune moment for the two European aggressors, for the Taranto episode must have seriously affected the attempts which the German Fuehrer was making to get Russia to throw her weight into the Axis adventure. Herr Hitler must have realised that he failed to impress M. Molotov, the Soviet Prime Minister and Foreign Commissar, in the way he hoped and he feared that Russia, while not wishing to offend her Nazi neighbour, might still prefer to retain her non-belligerent attitude instead of being drawn into hostilities with Britain and her allies on vague promises.

THE NEED for the Axis to achieve something definite to surmount this hesitancy on the part of the Soviet became more pressing and a summons from Berlin sent yet another reluctant sympathiser with Nazi aims scurrying from Spain to Herr Hitler's mountain retreat in Berchtesgaden.
Herr Hitler appears to feel more certain of his hold on General Franco because of obligations which the Spanish leader owes to the Axis for the unscrupulous part it played in the recent Civil War and political observers are of the opinion that Herr Hitler might be able to use the matted fist over Senor Suner, despite the fact that Spanish anxiety over joining the Axis fold is based on the reactions such a step would have on her relations with the United States. Spanish acceptance of the German proposals would immediately result in imports of foodstuffs from America to Spain being suspended and General Franco would have to face a similar food crisis as that which is threatening the rest of Nazi-occupied Europe.

IN THE MEANTIME, Herr Hitler's Italian partner had begun to show real signs of distress in his thrust into Greece and turned to his German overlord for succour.
Axis prestige was in the balance and Herr Hitler has now decided to clinch matters by his attempts to bring all his so-called friends into a huge bloc to counter the reverses that he and his satelites have suffered and, at the same time, to convince Russia and Spain that his power-politics are still as strong as ever. With Rumania already in his grasp, Herr Hitler appears to have ordered Bulgaria and Hungary to stand by his orders. The secret visit of King Boris to the German Fuehrer's hideout is significant of the influence which the Nazis have

TAIPO TUNNEL TRAGEDY INQUIRY RESUMED

Alleged Instructions To K.-C.R. Building Foreman

Giving evidence yesterday at the inquiry which was resumed at the Taipo Court before Mr. J. Barrow, sitting as Coroner, and a jury comprising Messrs. A. Landau (Foreman), C. Kew and Y. A. Sequeira, into the death of a woman, HUI KIU, 32, who was killed in a landslide at the Shatin mouth of the Taipo Railway tunnel on Aug. 5, a Kowloon-Canton Railway building foreman, Chan Hon, claimed that he had been instructed to permit passengers alighting from trains to go through the tunnel.

The instructions, he said, had been given to him by the Station Master, Mr. Wan, at Taipo, and he saw no reason to question the order and did not think that it was out of the sphere of the Station Master to give such an order. As the Station Master had himself come some distance to deliver these instructions, he had even less reason not to regard them as authentic. He took orders both from the Station Master's staff and from his own department, witness said. A man, Liu Yu-kau, of No. 7 Gang, was present at the time the Station Master gave him (witness) these instructions and he would secured in Bulgaria and the meeting now taking place in Vienna between the Axis representatives and Hungarian officials must be regarded as portending agreement to fall in with the German plan. This agreement would open the way for German troops to pass through Bulgaria to the assistance of Italy and force Yugoslavia into submission. How far this plan will go according to Herr Hitler's programme is not certain, but what is certain is that Turkey will assuredly not allow herself to be made a partner to this scheme. This will probably become the snag in Herr Hitler's plan.

ALMOST SIMULTANEOUSLY with this diplomatic manoeuvring in the west, Japan as the Axis partner, in the Orient, has resumed her peace overtures, covered by what is described as the "strategic withdrawal" of Japanese forces from certain areas in China. In the predicament which her European allies are now facing, Japan has doubtless been called upon to play her part, but this will hardly be possible as long as she is forced to keep a large part of her fighting forces on Chinese soil. The diplomacy which the Japanese are adopting to secure this end is so palpably futile, that she has made little progress in her attempts to end what she once so lightly referred to as the "China Incident." The Chinese are well aware of the growing political, economic and military weakness of Japan and are as determined as ever to accept no dictated peace and to consider no negotiations unless the Japanese completely withdraw from Chinese soil and undertake not to interfere in any way with China's independence and sovereign rights.

ABNORMAL CONDITIONS.
Mr. James Smith, Chief Mechanical Engineer of the Kowloon-Canton Railway said, in evidence, that conditions at the time of the landslide were abnormal and the fatal landslide was due to a hidden stream, the existence of which was not ascertained until after the accident.
The stream was some 16 feet inside the hill. It would not have come to light were it not for the landslide. On examining the earth he came to the conclusion that the hill where the landslides were occurring was what is known

The marriage took place on October 10 at the American Consulate, Tsingtao, of Allison Jean, daughter of Mr. A. A. Boyd and the late Capt. W. R. Boyd, of Shanghai, to William Alexander Fowler, of Red Oak, Virginia, USA.

ITALY'S CLAIMS ON FRANCE

VICHY, Nov. 20 (Reuters) — Anxiety with regard to Italy's claims on France is voiced in an unsigned article in Le Temps.

The writer says: "We shall pay particular attention to the fact that Il Duce has considered it necessary to emphasise that Italy's claims on France must be satisfied."

"We can only wait for the Italian claims to be officially formulated to judge how far they can be reconciled with the principle that the Axis peace to be concluded in common by Germany and Italy will not be a 'peace of revenge or of rancour'."

to the engineering profession as a "greasy hill" or one excessively saturated with water to the point where the earth would not bind. When opened up later the stream discharged 250,000 gallons of water a day for four days.

A number of other witnesses were heard at the inquiry. They were subjected to cross-examination on points of evidence by Major R. D. Walker, Manager, present on behalf of the Kowloon-Canton Railway, and three other railway officials.

The inquiry will be continued on Friday, Nov. 23.

JAPANESE ATTACK ON SAIGON, INVASION OF THAILAND SOON

WASHINGTON, NOV. 20 (REUTERS).—THE JAPANESE ATTACK ON SAIGON AND CAMRANH BAY AND THE INVASION OF THAILAND BY JAPANESE FORCES FROM INDO-CHINA are expected soon by circles here in very close touch with the Far East.

Despatches from Tokyo quoting the Japanese Press as inveighing anti-American and British encirclement of Japan and the warning to Siam and Saigon against linking with those democracies are considered here to have a familiar ring of the Axis protests presaging further aggression.

DECISION ON INDIA

unity and towards the agreed constitutional settlement for the future.

"H. M. Government do not propose to withdraw them and are still prepared to give effect to them as soon as they are convinced a sufficient degree of representative support is forthcoming."

"But as that degree of support has evidently not yet manifested itself, H. M. Government have decided that I would not be justified in proceeding with the expansion of my Executive Council or the establishment of a War Advisory Council at the present moment."

MR. AMERY'S STATEMENT

Mr. L. S. Amery, Secretary of India, referring to the Viceroy's announcement, said that the statement represented the very most that was practicable. The attitude of the Congress meant that the British Government should give all or nothing.

To accept that position or to move towards it would go far towards threatening all hopes of giving self-government to India.

Consequently the Viceroy came to the reluctant conclusion to suspend the matter for the time being.

Nevertheless, it is believed here that the Japanese leaders are hardly likely to forget that a southward drive is dependent on the defeat of Britain, therefore, while securing all territory possible without precipitating an Anglo-American action, Japan would not move against Hongkong, Singapore or the Netherlands East Indies, until Duce's army and navy can put up a better performance in the Mediterranean and Germany more successful against the British.

LOANS TO CHINA

Reports are current in well-informed circles here that plans are now being put before Washington officials for loans to China totalling $200,000,000 including the purchase of 500 planes with which China can undertake large scale counter-offensives, in which they feel confident of retaking Hankow and other vital centres—a campaign which definitely means that Japan will not be able to pursue her costly adventures in Indo-China and to the south.

Proponents of the plan indicate that half of such a loan go for the purchase of planes, while the other half as a fund to stabilise the enormous amount of paper currency with which Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek keeps an army of a million-and-a-half guerrillas harassing the Japanese lines of communication and they argue that $100,000,000 is cheap for the keeping of such a force for action.

Heavy Financial Burdens For Australia

CANBERRA, NOV. 20 (REUTERS).—A warning that within a few days a budget would be presented, imposing on Australia "financial burdens heavier than she had even been called upon to bear" was given by LORD GOWRIE, the Governor-General, in opening the first session of the new Australian Federal Parliament.

Lord Gowrie said that the principal business of the session would be to make financial provision for the conduct of the war.

"Speaking broadly," said Lord Gowrie, "while the difficulties and dangers confronting the Empire are greater than at any time in its history, there is much support for the view that the German ambition is to achieve a quick victory by a sudden development of overwhelming force, has been frustrated, and that the idea of invasion of Britain for the time being, at least, has been foiled.

"We are entering what would doubtless be a lengthy period in which immense resources, backed by the undoubted friendly neutrality of America would be more effectively marshalled and used in winning a complete victory and the establishment of just peace."

THE MILITARY SITUATION IN GREECE: LOSS OF ITALIAN PRESTIGE

"THE ITALIANS HAVE LOST HEAVILY IN MEN AND MATERIALS AND, MOST VALUABLE OF ALL, IN PRESTIGE—the Greeks have gained in material and morale and have, up to date, won the first round," said a military observer, when he spoke in London yesterday on the military situation in Greece.

"This is an excellent moment," he said, "to take stock of the situation, since the Italian attack has been broken and the invaders driven back. This breathing space can be used to construct a picture of future events which may follow."

MAGNIFICENT VICTORY

"The Greeks have really won a magnificent victory. The Italians did not expect such a vigorous resistance and when they saw that they had to fight, they were quickly broken up and driven back to where they started from."

"Now the Italians are using their dive-bombers against the Greeks and rushing up reinforcements from Albania. It is not easy at present to bring troops from Italy as there is the work of embarkation, disembarkation and distribution to be carried out in such a case. All these steps are open to danger and so reinforcements have been brought up from Albania. Even so, the moving up of these reinforcements have been attacked by the Greek and British air forces."

Up to the present, the speaker said, Crete was the only base being used by the British. There were other air fields in Greece, but these would have to be prepared before they could be effective in use. Pilots and ground staff had to be housed and this work could not be done in a night. When these other bases were ready, however, they would prove most effective in meeting any new attack that might be made on Greece.

ITALIAN POSITION

"Now let us consider the position from the Italian point of view," went on the speaker. The British raid on Taranto has raised a very important problem for the Italians and the use of Crete by the British has presented the Italians with a difficulty of great magnitude.

"Signor Mussolini's speech shows that he is conscious also of greater difficulties nearer home and his figures of the Italian losses—372 dead, 1,081 prisoners and 631 missing—were given to minimise the failure. And yet he admitted that these were the figures for the first ten days of the fighting, whereas the struggle had been going on for 22 days when he made his statement."

"When he came to talk of his Alpine troops he disclaimed their rout, but the report of the defeat of these troops was dated Nov. 12, six days before his speech."

The speaker went on to say that it was quite evident that the failure of the Italian campaign in Greece was most unpopular with the Italians—hence the camouflaged figures of losses.

DESPICABLE BEHAVIOUR

"The Italian people do not like to admit their failure and the fact that the whole world despises their action must have affected them to a great extent," said the speaker.

"The Greeks hate the Italians as they hate no other people. At one time the Turks were considered the arch-enemy of the Greeks, but once their differences were settled, they got together and have been good neighbours for a long time."

"With the Italians it is different. The Italians have always been towards the Greeks with despicable treachery."

The speaker paid an eloquent tribute to the Greek Army and went on to comment on the assistance which the Italians were now seeking from Germany.

"Germany is now trying to frighten Greece by attempting to persuade Bulgaria to permit the passage of troops through that country. At the same time, Germans are said to be leaving Greece."

"But even the possibility of German military action against Greece is still preposterous, as there are still Yugoslavia and Bulgaria to be considered before help can be given Italy and Russia is still likely to have a say on the subject."

Hitler Has Not Imposed Diktat On France

LONDON, NOV. 20 (REUTERS).—"HITLER HAS NOT IMPOSED DIKTAT ON FRANCE. He has acted in anticipation of it," writes THE TIMES in a leader on the wholesale expulsion of French citizens from Alsace-Lorraine.

During the past five years, Hitler declared again the restoration of the Saar a closed account with France and the western frontier of Germany irrevocably fixed.

During the early months of the war when he still counted on detaching France from the Allies with soft words rather than force of arms, he more than once reiterated this solemn pledge.

But the pledge has gone the way of Hitler's other promises. The intention to re-incorporate lost provinces in the Reich has been transparently clear ever since the defeat of France.

The fact of the annexation has not yet received formal sanction of the treaty and does not mean that Germany still regards the question as open to discussion. Such is the first result of the policy of "collaboration" between France and Germany and favoured by M. Laval.

FEELING IN FRANCE

Nothing could be better calculated to assist the revulsion of feeling in France, which according to all reports has been rapidly gathering momentum in the past few

DIPLOMATIC NETWORK OF AXIS POLITICS

such a bad piece of window-dressing, that it will have to be followed by a full dress conference at which there will be representatives of France, Belgium, Russia, Rumania, Hungary, Bulgaria and even Yugoslavia.

"If this comes off, Herr Hitler would be in a position to say to the United States and Britain: 'I have settled everything in Europe—why go on fighting?'"

SAVE MUSSOLINI

"It is clear that if Herr Hitler is now out to save Signor Mussolini and Italy from the hands of the Greeks, he must get co-operation from Bulgaria, Rumania and Hungary. This would account for the visits of King Boris and General Antonescu to Berlin and the journeys of the Prime Minister and Foreign Minister of Hungary to Vienna."

"The Axis always likes to have two strings to its bow, so that if one fails, the other may be pulled off. Like burglars, if they cannot break in at the front door, they look at the drain pipes to see if they can get in that way. The fact was that something had to be done and done quickly."

"The Italians were suffering severe and humiliating reverses from a small but determined people, whose only ally is Britain, whose help the Axis Powers have always tried to belittle. There is no doubt that Signor Mussolini is feeling the pinch and he does not like it."

"In his speech he said that he did not know whether the war will last two months or twelve months and he added that it did not matter which. I wonder whether the Italian people feel that way about it."

LAST ANY TIME

"What Signor Mussolini really feels is that if Germany helps him the war might last two months, and if she does not, it may last any time. Italy's prestige is certainly low today and Signor Mussolini's is even lower. His speech was apologetic and unhappy, and it is hard to say which attitude hurts him most."

"In the same way, Herr Hitler might not mind seeing his partner in a mess. It will suit him to show Signor Mussolini how impotent he is."

"In fact, Signor Mussolini is now staring at the prospect of making his country nothing more or less than a minor dependency of Germany. In that event he has little to gain from either victory or defeat—he loses anyway. You can wonder what the Italian people are thinking of that prospect."

"The important question is this—Now that Herr Hitler sees that Italy needs his help so badly, will he intervene in the Balkan war? Can he help himself?"

STRIKING PASSAGE

"I wonder whether you noticed that striking passage in Signor Mussolini's speech in which he said that he had asked permission from Herr Hitler to help in the air attacks on Britain. Perhaps, Signor Mussolini is now hoping that Herr Hitler will ask his kind permission to help him in his war against the Greeks."

"So perhaps, Herr Hitler might prefer to help Italy indirectly and perhaps he is even trying to draw Bulgaria into a war against the Greeks. The Bulgars have various claims against the Greeks, so, following the usual German custom, Herr Hitler will make this as stormy as possible."

"But there is Turkey to be considered. Turkey has said that if Bulgaria attacks Greece, she will go to the aid of the Greeks. The Germans could, of course, reach Greece through Yugoslavia, but here too sympathy has been with the Greeks and public feeling in that country is full of admiration for the heroic fighting of the Greeks. In view of this it would be doubtful whether Yugoslavia would allow the passage of troops without objection."

"These then are some of the awkward pieces that the Axis Powers will have to fit into the puzzle. Nothing has yet transpired of the result of the visit of King Boris to Herr Hitler. And what part will Russia play in all this? That is no clearer than the rest."

RUSSIA'S POSITION

"Taking the long view, it is doubtful whether Russia will give either Germany or Italy a free hand. Russia, however, is not in a position to offend either of them and her co-operation might be restricted to the economic field."

"One must not forget also that Herr Hitler has one eye on the Western Mediterranean. Signor Suner, Spain's Foreign Minister is now on his way back home after another talk. Signor Suner is becoming unpopular with the military leaders of Spain, but the influence of the Falangist Party may be strong enough to set the balance in favour of the Axis in Spain."

"That is the position in Europe which Herr Hitler and Signor Mussolini find themselves up against, but with all their threats of war and blackmail, it will not be an easy matter for them to establish their so-called new order of misery in Europe."

ITALO-GREEK WAR

FIERCE FIGHTING CONTINUES

LONDON, NOV. 20 (BWS).—Fierce fighting continues in the Greek theatre of war.

Last night's Greek communique in Athens states: "In the Kouitsa region our troops drove back the enemy at the point of the bayonet from strong positions which he defended stubbornly. On the mountainous Moravia Massif our offensive action was continued with success."

"In aerial combats 11 enemy aeroplanes were brought down. All our aircraft returned to their bases."

SAMOS BOMBED

ATHENS, NOV. 20 (REUTERS).—The Italians shelled and bombed the Aegean island of Samos in retaliation for Sunday's "private raid" by 15 Greek bombers against one of the Dodecanese Islands.

Italy used a flotilla of destroyers for the purpose as well as aeroplanes.

The damage, however, is stated to be insignificant.

SEVERE LOSSES

ROME, NOV. 20 (REUTERS).—"Strong repeated" Greek attacks in South-East Korinthia and on the road to Kalbaki is admitted in the Italian High Command communique, which, however, claims that all attacks were repulsed with severe losses to the enemy.

LONDON, NOV. 20 (BWS).—It is officially stated in London that British fighters in Greece yesterday shot down nine Italian aircraft without loss to themselves.

AXIS PRESSURE ON TURKEY

NAZI ENVOY DROPS HINT

ANKARA, NOV. 20 (REUTERS).—Political circles in Ankara are now inclined to expect a new Axis campaign of pressure on Turkey as a sequel to conversations between Hitler and Molotov in Berlin.

According to a dispatch from Berlin, von Papen, the German Ambassador to Turkey, told foreign correspondents that rapprochement with the Axis Powers as well as complete restoration of friendly relations with the Soviet Union has become urgent problems for the Turks since Molotov's visit.

Von Papen hinted that Germany and Italy would respect Turkish independence and the Soviet would abandon any claim to the Dardanelles if Turkey accepted the "new order" which would mean separating herself from Britain and acknowledging the right of the Axis to direct the policy of Europe.

Turkish political quarters stated yesterday that they have full confidence in Turkey's ability to win any war of nerves which the Axis Powers care to start.

Hearing was further adjourned to this morning.

BEWARE NIGHT PROWLERS

New Device For Night Shooting Perfected

An attachment for pistols to remove chance from night shooting has been perfected by G. Howlett Davis, a Detroit.

The device consists of a small battery and light fixed below and parallel to the weapon barrel. When lighted it throws a tiny beam. A bullet will strike the target at the spot where the light beam hits. More than that, the bullet will centre the light, where two cross hairs in the lens meet.

One of the first to enthuse over the Davis invention is Sergeant Marvin Driver, coach of the Detroit Police Department pistol team, internationally known for its achievements.

POLICE WORK

"It has very great possibilities in police work," Driver said. "It will take chance out of shooting at night. Officers searching for prowlers and criminals have a pistol in one hand and flashlight in the other."

"Under conditions like this, hitting a man with a bullet is a matter of chance. No policeman will shoot to kill unless necessary. With the Davis device, he won't have to shoot to kill. He can fire to cripple his man."

Driver believes the light also will improve marksmanship.

The device was tested also by Lieutenant Claude Broom, head of the Detroit police training school. "I'm not the best shot in the world, but I couldn't miss the target when I used the attachment," Broom said.

The device weighs seven ounces and is detachable. The light is controlled by a mercury switch and does not flash on until the pistol is raised almost parallel with the ground.

Davis said that he worked for two years to perfect the device. Strangely enough, he is not a shooter. The idea came to him during other experiments with light.

Over 500,000 Pines Going To Waste Daily

Unless the position of Malaya's pineapple trade, now practically at a standstill, takes a sudden turn within the next fortnight, over half a million fruits will lie ungathered daily in the several hundred estates of the country, writes a Malaya Tribune Staff reporter.

A reply to a representation made to Government by the pineapple packers and the Chamber of Commerce some time ago, asking the Government to buy the present stock of canned pines now lying in the factories—about 450,000 cases in all—so as to permit the continuance of the business, is expected soon.

Brought to an abrupt ending by the cessation of orders from the United Kingdom owing to the war in Europe, the pineapple business, the third biggest of Malaya's trades, has been at a standstill for about three months. About 20,000 workers have been affected.

It was a fortunate fact that the stoppage of work commenced at the end of a fruiting season, when the crop was not at a flourishing period, but the new season—and hundreds of thousands of pines daily—is fast approaching, so that unless the trade is resumed millions of fruits will be wasted.

BIG CROP

During the new season, which commences this month I was told by an official of the Central Board, an average of a million fruits are gathered daily during the peak of the period, while during the remaining days of the season, until the last few weeks, approximately half of this number only is collected.

"It is easier to get the number of fruits gathered a day when you take an average of 1,500 fruits for every acre of land on which pines are grown," the official told me.

New Railway Line Opened

GREAT ECONOMIC IMPORTANCE

PEIPING, Nov. 20 (Reuters).—A favourite Japanese project, has been realised with the opening of a new east to west railway linking China's two great north to south trunk lines.

Construction was started in 1917 but was delayed by civil war and inter-provincial jealousy. The new line, 150 miles long, runs from Shihchichang, on the Peiping-Hankow Railway, to Tehchow on the Tientsin-Pukow Railway across the Hopei plain. It is of great economic as well as military importance because it gives trade in the Shansi Province direct access to the sea at the port of Tsingtao through Tsinan, capital of Shantung Province.

STRUGGLE ENDED

Incidentally, opening of the new line ends, in Tsingtao's favour, a 25-years' struggle with Tientsin to win Shansi trade.

Originally the eastern terminus of the line was to have been Tranchow, only 80 miles south of Tientsin, but the Japanese have always favoured the more southerly route.

The Japanese have also widened the narrow gauge railway from Shihchichang to Tsinan, thus further improving the new trade route.

LONDON STOCK EXCHANGE

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuters).—On the Stock Exchange yesterday, foreign bonds, especially South American, met investment inquiry. Home rails and industrials remained quiet and occasionally inclined to lag for want of fresh support.

Gold-edged securities closed steady while rubbers and oils were steady.

Wall Street was quietly steady.

Singapore Fund For Coventry Relief

LONDON, Nov. 20 (Reuters).—Coventry-born residents of Singapore have started a fund for the relief of citizens of that city who suffered in last week's heavy raid. The sum of £250 was raised in one day.

OVERSEAS CHINESE CAPITAL

Investment In China Enterprises Urged

The Ministry of Economic Affairs is encouraging overseas Chinese to make capital investments in economic enterprises in China. Regulations pertaining thereto printed in pamphlet form have been distributed to local Chinese organisations.

The economic enterprises in which they may invest include mining, agricultural and commercial projects and other enterprises in connexion with national defence.

Those whose investments occupy more than 60 per cent of the total capital of a project will enjoy technical guidance from the Ministry, tax exemption or reduction, public land, guaranteed interests on their capital, subsidy grants, and awards of prizes.

They may also appeal for assistance from the Ministry in case of difficulties.

Imported over 2,000,000 cases of pines every year, which is over 80 per cent of the total amount canned in the nine large factories of Malaya.

British Malaya Is Key Post For War Material

SINGAPORE.—BRITISH MALAYA'S KEY JOB IN THE PRESENT WAR continues to be supplying of essential raw materials to the empire and, through the sale of raw materials to the United States, to supply needed foreign exchange to the empire's war chest.

DESPITE THE IMPORTANCE OF SINGAPORE as the cornerstone of British defences in the Far East, Indian Ocean and western Pacific, her main job is economic, S. W. Jones, Acting Governor, revealed.

Mr. Jones, in a speech reviewing the war effort of the colony, also revealed that the government has expanded $1,000,000 Straits dollars in war efforts, including the 1,000,000 pound sterling gift, payments to the Home Government in respect of war duties and war loan, local military expenditure and cost of wartime departments.

FAILURE MEANS DISASTER "In the mechanized form which modern warfare has taken the raw materials that Malaya supplies are vital and, although lacking the banners and trumpets of actual fighting, the grim truth is that any failure of our efforts to satisfy those needs would have results no less disastrous than cowardice in battle," Mr. Jones declared.

"The review of the colony's contribution to the war must, therefore, be set against the background of an unflinching and successful endeavour to play this part and a most praiseworthy spirit of loyal patience in accepting burdens and restrictions which grow in intensity as the war progresses."

Mr. Jones reviewed the colony's contribution: Gifts to the Imperial Government were continued and early in the year 1,000,000 pounds sterling was sent to the exchequer to assist in the prosecution of the war.

Contributions from individuals and through the patriotic fund and the war fund, totalled $1,980,000 and $4,230,000 respectively. The Singapore Municipality contributed $1,000,000 to the War Fund and the Penang Municipality, $800,000.

The Singapore harbour undertook to build and equip two launches for the British Navy.

HUNDREDS OF young men of all races have undergone periods of intensive training with the volunteer forces. Others were with air raid precautions and as a result of the compulsory service ordinance a number of British Europeans have been added to the strength of the Straits Settlements Volunteer Force.

Others, together with a number of women, are training for the Volunteer Air Force to be used in local defence. A flying-training school which aims at training young men who will eventually enter the Royal Air Force has been opened.

A local defence corps, which will be manned chiefly by those unable to join one or other of the volunteer forces, has been formed. Members will be trained for internal defence purposes in the event of an emergency.

"During the past year the people of the colony," Mr. Jones added, "have shown by their loyalty, their support, their fidelity in the discharge of the duties assumed to them and their disciplined acceptance of many inconveniences and restrictions their determination to fight to a victorious end this war against a system that is fundamentally hostile to our political traditions, ideas and sympathies and against methods which are the quintessence of brutality, ill-faith and oppression."

WAR EFFECTS NOTED "I am convinced that, though the conflict may be long and tormenting, their resolve will never slacken until those evil things are utterly destroyed."

Malaya's population has been affected by the activities of such war time departments as restricted imports and exports, shipping control, foreign exchange control, food control and censorship.

Mr. Jones, in his speech, referred to the exchange control which, he said, could not be popular, because it restricted the liberty of individuals to use their wealth as they would like to use it. He said the public on the whole had accepted the restrictions as necessary.

GREATEST DRAIN The greatest drain of foreign exchange other than in payment for imports was China. Jones said it was fully appreciated that payments in the form of family remittances by Chinese to their dependents in China was in the nature of payment for services rendered to Malaya by Chinese and there was no intention of prohibiting such payments.

Permission was granted for remittances of large sums monthly to alleviate general distress as well as remittances for support of particular families.

The Straits Settlements is budgeting for a deficit of $11,000,000 in 1941, with revenue estimated at $46,200,000 and expenditure at $57,300,000.

Effect Of Berlin Parley On U.S. Role In Pacific

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Philippine circles as well as other Far Eastern quarters here vigilantly studied today reports and rumours emanating from Berlin, since most foreign relations experts believed that the status of the Philippines and, indirectly, the U. S. role in the Pacific may be strongly affected by any economic or political agreement between Soviet Russia and the Axis powers, writes Julius C. Edelstein in the Manila Bulletin.

Experts on international affairs inevitably greater freedom for southward advancement.

Impartial experts, however, could not conceive of what Soviet Russia would gain from such an arrangement, unless the quid pro quo was the division of China or rights in India and Afghanistan.

President Roosevelt's unexpected departure today for a four-day cruise down the Potomac river halted the efforts of Philippine Assembly Speaker Jose Yulo and Resident Commissioner Joaquin M. Elizalde, who had sought a White House conference on the Philippine constitutional amendments.

WHITE HOUSE JOB

Commissioner Elizalde conferred with Ebert Burlew, assistant secretary of interior, who informed him that Interior Secretary Harold Ickes would do his utmost to secure a White House appointment as soon as the President returns.

Speaker Yulo arrived here late Tuesday from New York, hoping to secure swift action on the amendments to facilitate his return to Manila on an early boat, but President Roosevelt's departure called off his efforts in this direction. Yulo is planning to return to New York.

Meanwhile, it was understood he might confer with Manila on the general situation. The assembly speaker had desired urgently to take the s.s. President Coolidge on Nov. 24, arriving in Manila on Dec. 22, but he will now be unable to see the President before Nov. 19 at the earliest.

Daylight saving is to continue indefinitely in the Canadian Provinces of Ontario and Quebec to release 189,000 hydroelectric horsepower for industry.

ACES' PENNANT HOPES JEOPARDISED BY SECOND DEFEAT AT HANDS OF INDIAN S.C.

Excellent Defensive Play By Baby Panthers

Staging a complete reversal of form after their defeat at the hands of the Cyclones, the Indian Softballers struck a lusty blow at the Aces' pennant hopes when they downed the Aces by 6 tallies to 4, in the nightcap of last Sunday's programme.

The Indian boys shocked Ace hurler Johnny Alvares and his infielders with unexpected tip-and-run tactics in the first two stanzas during which they registered all six markers that constituted their winning count.

The Aces steadied during the latter stages of the game and prevented the Indians from adding to their score by serving up some brilliant fielding feats that drew rounds of applause from the capacity crowd present.

Brightest feat of the game was Zinho Gossano's unassisted double play in the sixth stanza when Tarzan Ismail reached second, with none away, to set the stage. Kassa Nazarin came to bat, took a toe hold and slashed a liner over the keyhole that would have been good for a bag or two, ninety-nine times out of a hundred.

ONE-HANDED CATCH
Off with the crack of the bat, Zinho just managed a one-handed stab, pivoted and raced to second to nail Ismail who by then was well on his way to third.

The Aces showed fight by cutting down the Indians' lead with two tallies in the fifth and another in the sixth but could do nothing in their last time at bat.

LACKADAISICAL DISPLAY
St. Joseph's won by a street over the Cyclones whose lackadaisical display let them down on the short end of a 13-2 count. Excellent hurling by Frankie Gonzalez held the three scratch bingles while his team-mates were pounding the opposition hurling for 11 safeties, which included a circuit clout by "Ski" Powlowski and doubles by Stan Leonard, George Souza, Hank Ali and Dave "The Bambino" Leonard.

The classy Mohawk gang gave another entertaining performance when the Hongkong Baseballers trounced the Canadian Chinese by 20 markers to 10.

SPEEDY HURLING

Despite some speedy hurling by Herbie Quon, who showed glimpses of his hurling prowess by fanning several of the Club hitters' hefty clouting by Fitch, who connected for a brace of round-trippers, and Edwards, who registered a triple, gave Chuck Waggoner's outfit another easy victory.

Club twirlers Rowlands and Edwards proved too easy for the Canucks who garnered eleven blows but threw the game away with 12 bungled fielding efforts.

FLORINHAS NO OPPOSITION

The Little Flower Club went down without a struggle against the Wahoes. In the first of the Ladies' matches, the final count being 29-5 in the Green Owls' favour. Irene Castillo homered and Jackie Anderson twice doubled for the winners who took full advantage of the Florinhas' eighteen miscues to garner their huge total on only 17 blows.

Lily Silva on the mound, Hilda Antonio behind the plate and Inez Soares showed promise for the competition's newest squad, but the others didn't appear to be even trying most of the time.

The Baby Panthers, as expected, put up an excellent defensive display to take the Cardinals by 10 tallies to 7, committing but two errors to give themselves the best fielding record of the day, including the Men's games.

Panther hurler Lella Xavier ran into trouble against Rosta Bagalaw who hit for the circuit and Efigenia who tripled and doubled, but had little difficulty with the other Redbird stickwielders who would have been much happier swinging tennis racquets. It was not Lella's twirling, though, that impressed most, her spectacular fielding making her the Panthers' most valuable player, although Celeste Marques also looked good in defence.

EASY OUTING

The Wildcats had an easy outing against the Ramblerettes, garnering eighteen safeties that put them on the long end of a 25-7 count. Gloria Mar, with a homer, was the winners' longest hitter although her team-mates, without exception, managed to connect with hits to swell the score. Irene Pereira, former Ramblerette skipper, maintained her consistent form with the hickory, hitting three times in four trips to the pan.

Ding Lopes, after giving a poor display at the Windy Alley for the first three sessions, moved to the Hot Corner where she proved herself to be more at home by handling numerous chances in fine style.

HUNGARY JOINS AXIS -JAPAN PACT

that the whole world has long known that Turkey has refused to discuss any change in the control of the Straits and Germany is badly mistaken if she expects them to accept such a promise as they are fully aware of the value of German assurances.

Sir Hugh Knatchbull-Hugessen, British Ambassador to Turkey, had a long conversation yesterday with M. Sarajoglu, the Turkish Foreign Minister and this is taken as an indication of further close co-operation between Turkey and Britain in the face of the new Axis moves.

TURKISH PRECAUTIONS

The Turks, however, have extended their precautions and besides black-outs, some 32 trains have been suspended from running and it was announced that a further tightening of the national protection law is to be expected with a widening of the Government's powers in the event of war.

There is, of course the possibility of Germany using Bulgaria to reach the Aegean Sea for an attack on Greece through Bulgaria, but Bulgaria has so far given no sign of being the willing tool of the Germans.

A Bulgarian paper yesterday stated: "We Bulgarians are ready to negotiate peacefully for the return of Western Thrace and for the restoration of friendship between Greece and Bulgaria."

3-POINT PROGRAMME

ZURICH, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Basing their beliefs on messages from Rome, Berlin and Madrid, political observers here predict a three-point programme of an Axis action.

First, it appears likely that Germany will intervene shortly in Greece.

Secondly, Germany aims at conciliating Italian, French, and Spanish points of view before causing diversion in the Mediterranean by an attack on Gibraltar, and solidarity" behind the Axis.

Thirdly, Germany plans to obtain a formal adhesion of Spain and the South-Eastern States of Europe to a three Power pact in order to confront the world with a demonstration of a "European future."

JAPANESE VIEW

TOKYO, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Hungary's adherence to the Tripartite Pact signed by Japan, Germany and Italy in September was announced here last night.

A Japanese Foreign Office spokesman declared: "This will unquestionably contribute towards the attainment of the fundamental object of the Tripartite Pact and the strengthening of the respective positions of Japan, Germany and Italy in Greater East Asia and region of Europe."

Pointing out Hungary is the first country to join the tripartite pact, the statement continued: "Her participation paves the way for the other countries to share in the common purpose and deal with Japan, Germany and Italy."

MUST DECIDE PLACE

MADRID, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—King Leopold will see Hitler shortly, says the Berlin correspondent of the Spanish News Agency, Efe. The moment has come, writes the correspondent, when the small countries must decide their place in new Europe.

Certain of them with vast colonial possessions, he says, will have to "pay for the future of peace and security with some sacrifice."

HOPE TO PEACE

VIENNA, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—The hope of peace in not too distant a future was dangled before the eyes of the world by Herr von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister after the signature of the Protocol bringing Hungary into the Axis-Japan Pact.

According to a broadcast from Vienna, after welcoming Hungary as "the first Power to join the Pact" the Nazi Foreign Minister said: "Further Powers will follow. It is the unalterable determination of the Powers united in this Pact to bring about a world-wide union of all the young Powers, who are genuinely prepared for sacrifices and who desire just peace."

"I am firmly convinced that the armed forces of the Allied States and the weight of this alliance will contribute to the restoration of peace in not too remote a future."

FARM HAND HANGED IN PRISON

TAI KOON-YING, who was sentenced to death by the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, at the Criminal Sessions on Oct. 25 on a charge of murder, was hanged at the Hongkong Prisons, Stanley, yesterday at 7 a.m.

At an inquest held at the Central Magistracy in the afternoon, with Mr. G. T. Lowry sitting as Coroner and assisted by a jury comprising Messrs. G. A. Noronha (Foreman), Azeda Alexander and Wong Hon-kai, a verdict of death by judicial hanging was returned.

Evidence was given by Dr. A. H. Barwell, Prison Medical Officer.

HACKED WITH CHOPPER

Deceased was charged with the murder of Ho Wan and his uncle, Ho Kau-chun, at Leung Tin Village, Castle Peak on Sept. 22. It was stated in the course of the trial that deceased hacked the two victims with a chopper after he had been dismissed from his employment as a farm hand for allegedly indecently assaulting Ho Wan's wife.

Mr. J. Reynolds, Crown Counsel, assisted by Det. Insp. L. R. Whant, prosecuted, while Mr. George She, instructed by Mr. Alfred S. K. Lau, was for the defence.

Tai Koon-ying was the fifth man to pay the supreme penalty this year.

MORE DIFFICULTIES FOR JAPANESE

PEIPING, Nov. 20 (Reuter).—Japan's difficulties in North China are stated to be growing.

Chinese regular troops entering Hopei province for the first time for three years are believed to be responsible for the wrecking of two trains on the Peiping-Hankow Railway.

Severe fighting is taking place at several points west of the railway and a Japanese spokesman claimed the Japanese had occupied Pouping, one of the communist eighth route army's bases, but the Japanese troops, which penetrated the western hills only 30 miles from Peiping for "mopping up operations" have had to retire.
